

Robbie B - Bio

Robbie B is a solo performer that has been compared to the likes of Aretha Franklin, Pat Benatar, Tina Turner, and Fergie, so say many fans over the years. Robbie has professionally sang on stages from coast to coast, performing Soulful Rock, Bluesy Pop, Smooth Jazz, and R&B. Her diverse influences from growing up in Miami and San Francisco fueled her passion for many genres of music...and blended to make Robbie's voice powerful, unique, and versatile. Robbie first performed in a showcase at the age of 5, singing "Age of Aquarius", Robbie's first operatic performance "Carmen" at age 11 years old, was at the Jackie Gleason Performing Arts Theater in Miami Beach, FL. She then performed a principal role in the "Mikado" at age 16 in San Francisco. Robbie was also singing gospel through her teens in the choir at church. She has had an array of exciting experiences from recording jingles, to studio work with various local artists, performing in pop and R&B showcases, part of a soft rock duo in the "Help the Homeless Holiday Jam" on Miami Beach FL, and lead singer for three successful live rock acts. In 2012 Robbie completed the recording for the EP of THE EDEN PROJECT. The title track was mixed by multi-platinum producer, Kevin Beamish. (of no relation) The project also includes a film, and a 3 dimensional video game which is still in development. An accompanying music video was filmed by Jay Strasser. (Videographer for Elton John and The Eagles' latest tours.) For Robbie, the past few years have been a thrilling ride co-producing and recording THE EDEN PROJECT and still is a great accomplishment on her music resume.
